Indigo Kits

Large & small kits are available: Natural/Bio Indigo, Synthetic Indigo, Pre-Reduced Indigo and a Fructose Indigo Kit. Kits include Indigo, Hydros/Fructose & Lime, Soda Ash, Instructions and gloves. Large kits include a set of 5cm Itajimes.

Which Indigo is best? Depends on several variables but here is a quick guide of why you might use one over the other:

Natural/Bio: Well it's the original - Indigo that comes from a plant, you can even grow your own!

Synthetic: Man-made Indigo, which is cheaper and gives a stronger blue.

Pre-Reduced: Extremely easy to set up, use and maintain a vat. Easily dissolves so you don't have to make a paste.

Fructose: Doesn't use Hydros but takes more attention & time to get the vat successfully running. Will produce lighter shades.

SMALL KITS	STARTING AT $26.00
LARGE KITS	STARTING AT $37.00

What is Shibori?

Shibori is a technique of resist dyeing that originated in China and then became popular in Japan. It's a manual application of binding, twisting, clamping or stitching fabric so that areas are resistant to dye exposure.

Some organic bleeding will occur, but its effect depends on the tightness of the resist technique and the length of time the fabric is exposed to the dye.

Shibori techniques can be used with many types of dyes/paints and forms of their application e.g. dipping, painting, full immersion, multiple immersions etc - but it is most commonly used with Indigo Vat Dyeing.

Itajime

Itajime shapes are 1/8" thick laser cut acrylic (plexiglass) for Shibori clamping. Use two Itajime on either side of the fabric and clamp down to create a resist shape when dyeing. Available in Circles, Triangles, Squares, Hexagons, Ovals and Twinkle Sets in various sizes.

STARTING AT $5.00

Artificial Sinew

Flat-waxed polyester thread which is super strong, waterproof, rot-proof and won't stretch when it's wet. Great alternative to cotton string & rubber bands for tie dye & Shibori. Can be split for finer diameter and when wrapped will cinch onto itself and stay tight.

31 MTS	$15.50	275 MTS	$44.10
137 MTS	$26.65

G-Clamps

Always a good tool to have in your studio. Metal G-Clamps can be used for clamping acrylic or wooden shapes for Shibori effects. Tip: Don't clamp Acrylic shapes too tightly when dyeing in hot water as they can snap.

what is a micron?

'Micron' is a shorter term for 'Micrometer' or μm , which is a unit of measurement for identifying the diameter of a single strand of wool. The higher the micron, the thicker the wool.

Like human hair, animal fibres (also called protein fibres) have small scales along their shaft. When these little scales are rubbed together, they interlock and felt together.

When felting or spinning, a low micron or finer wool will give a softer finish whereas a higher micron wool will give a scratchier, more rugged finish.

Finer micron fibres are preferred for something that will be worn directly next to the skin like a scarf. Higher micron fibres are preferred for harder wearing items like bags and hats, as they are not usually in constant direct contact with the skin. Although, this is not a hard and fast rule. You can experiment to see what works for you.

Felting Needles

Used in needle felting wool and other fibres. Small barbs along the shaft of the needle catch and felt the wool fibres together to form 3D shapes. Use with or without a needle handle. The higher the number code, the finer the needle. Gauges available: 38, 40 & 42.  Made in Germany what is momme?

'Momme' or 'mm' is the unit of measurement for the weight of silk fabrics that traditionally comes from classifying Japanese Kimono fabrics. Unfortunately, it gets confused with the more familiar millimetre, also 'mm'. The most common way to think about Momme is when purchasing bedding. A higher thread count essentially means a heavier weight and tighter woven fabric.

A low Momme is a lighter fabric, a more open weave and has less silk in the weave per square cm. An example of a lower Momme fabric in our silks would be the Chiffon.

A high Momme fabric would have a tighter and denser weave, using more silk, therefore having more silk threads in the weave per square cm. An example of a heavier weight silk in our range would be our 23mm Fuji Silk, available on the website.

BOXED SET $36.50

Beeswax/Paraffin Blend

25/75 blend of pure beeswax and Paraffin Wax for Batik. Ideal Blend of waxes for easy removal from fabric after dyeing.

500GM	$15.00
1KG	$23.50

Pure Beeswax

Filtered beeswax suitable for Batik or making beeswax wraps. Used with Paraffin to make standard Batik wax, as it is very difficult to remove from fabric without it.

500GM	$26.50
1KG	$46.20

Paraffin Wax

Base wax for most Batik wax recipes as it is a soft wax with a low melting temperature.

500GM	$5.20
1KG	$8.25

Wax Pot

Single pot electric wax heater for Batik, heats to maximum 70°C for safety. Adjustable thermostat for a fast or slow melt and wax temperature control. Comes with full instructions & Australian power plug adapter.  Note : Beeswax and Paraffin melt at 55 - 60°C.

500ML CAPACITY $39.99

Cold Wax

No heat required - simply paint on both sides of fabric with a brush and this will act as a resist. Dye with cold water dyes (Procions). Once dried, washes out in hot soapy water. Cold wax does not give you the same detail as achieved with HOT batik wax.

and so much more...

We believe everyone can be creative and we love helping customers of all levels of skill get results. If you can't find what you're looking for in our catalogue please check our online store or submit an enquiry via our 'Contact Us' page - we're here to help! We sell thousands of products and continue to expand our offerings for fibre, textiles and beyond. Happy making!

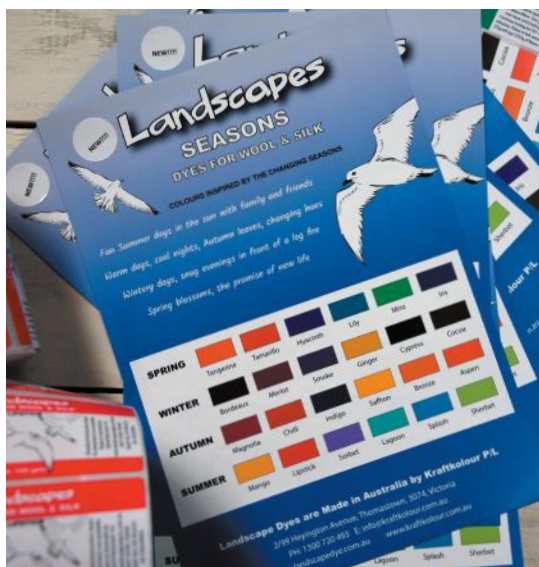

Natural Dyes

We carry a large range of natural dyes sourced from around the globe as well as the mordants you need to help fix them onto the fabric.

Soon we are hoping to release a series of Natural Dye Kits to help people get started with Natural Dye basics.

Sources for natural dyes are already surrounding you in your home and in nature, if you want to get started with natural dye you could try: onion peels, avocado pits, eucalyptus, rusted bolts, purple cabbage, hibiscus tea and so much more. The easiest way to learn is just do some basic reading, have a go, experiment and have fun!

You can find an extensive free resource "Natural Dyeing for the Artisan Dyer" in our Instructions section of the website under 'Natural Dyes & Mordants Instructions'.

Landscapes Dyes - for Silk, Wool and now... Cottons

Kraftkolour is the very proud home of Landscapes Dyes, used all over the world for the last 30 years.

Currently we have 3 ranges, the Originals, the Elements and the Seasons - providing 90 colours.

We are so excited to announce that we have released a long awaited Landscapes for Cotton Range.

Landscapes dyes have been formulated by our talented Dye Technicians so that they are a one jar dye, everything you need is in a single pot. You don't need salt, you don't need any fixative or mordant, it's all in there.

The Landscapes Dyes are easy to use and consistently give easy and great results every time. They also have great colour fastness and can achieve great depths of shade.

Look out for our NEW Landscapes Cotton Dyes!

Drop Spindle Kit

Using a Spindle is a great introduction to spinning your own fibres and yarns. It's common for beginners to have trouble with co-ordinating the drafting process (using your hands) and keeping the right speed of the wheel (with your feet). Learning with a Spindle lets you learn the drafting process, it's significantly cheaper than purchasing a wheel and it's very portable!

Spindle kits as well as the individual components are available from the website and group or class kit quantities are available at a discount. Please get in touch with us for pricing.

Includes:

1 Kromski Drop Spindle, 150gms of 19micron DHG fibre and Instructions on how to get started.

important information

- Pricing: All prices are inclusive of GST. Although Kraftkolour aims to provide consistent pricing, prices listed here and on our website are subject to change. If an increase in price occurs, prices will be honored at the time of quoting/ordering for two weeks.
- Colours & Images: Colours represented throughout this catalogue and on our website should be used as an indication only. Colours have been matched as closely as possible but Kraftkolour always encourages colour tests prior to producing a final work. Images and swatches used throughout this catalogue are correct at the time of printing. Kraftkolour can reformulate and match colours without notice and will indicate on product packaging when this occurs.
- Payment: Where credit has been offered, payment is strictly due within 14 days of invoicing. All other orders must be prepaid prior to your order being shipped.
- Claims & Returns: Claims for goods that are faulty, damaged in transit or incorrectly supplied must be made within 7 days from the date of delivery. Stock cannot be returned without the prior approval of Kraftkolour. Please provide your invoice number.
- Supply: Kraftkolour chooses to support smaller artisan businesses where possible, such as our 'Handloomed' fabric and scarf range. Due to the labor intensive nature of these items, as well as suppliers working from conflict-affected areas, supply of product can be interrupted or paused without notice.
